Conclusion & Future Directions

• Early reports show PatientLink as a novel online platform that improves the quality of care for patient supporters.

• Next steps are to continue recruitment and data collection and broaden the use of PatientLink across surgical specialties. Validation of preliminary results is warranted.

References
